

Department for International Trade

English Law Week 2017: The Law - A noble profession or just business?

Monday 20 - Thursday 23 November 2017
Moscow and St Petersburg, Russia

English Law Week 2017 will bring together a number of esteemed speakers from leading UK and Russian firms, organisations, institutions and corporations focusing on the following topics:

- Recent English judgments involving Russian and CIS parties
- Case study of a claim in England involving Russian parties
- International arbitration
- Competition law issues - Brexit and EU regulations
- Corporate law and taxation law topics
- Organisation of law as a business - current business models and trends
- Recovering assets through bankruptcy and liquidation
- Regulation of the legal profession

Please visit www.lawsociety.org.uk for additional details and to view the full programme.

Registrations are now open.

To register, please contact Daria.Gromova@fco.gov.uk for the Moscow event and Natalia.Shibanova@fco.gov.uk for the St Petersburg event.

Speaking opportunity and general information

For speaking opportunities and additional information about the event, please contact Katharina.Kirchberger@LawSociety.org.uk.

Sponsorship opportunity

For information about sponsorship opportunities, please contact David.McKeever@LawSociety.org.uk.