

Seminar Invitation

Sovereign Immunity in Shipping

Thursday 26 January 2012

CLYDE&CO

This seminar is being held in conjunction with:

We would like to invite you to a seminar on “Sovereign Immunity in Shipping: A Russian and UK perspective” that is being hosted by Clyde & Co in association with the International Law Association and the British-Russian Law Association.

This seminar will be chaired by Professor Dan Sarooshi of Essex Court Chambers with presentations from Professor Valery Musin of Clyde & Co's St Petersburg affiliated office and John Whittaker of Clyde & Co's International Trade, Energy and Arbitration team in London.

During the afternoon we will look at differing law and practice on sovereign immunity relating to shipping including:

- English law and the implications of sovereign immunity for those in the shipping industry
- The interplay between shipping and sovereign immunity in Russia
- The commercial impact of these issues
